

Programme for IfJ AGM and Seminar 15th November 2018

Theme: Knowledge, skills, resilience: By intermediaries –for intermediaries

Time	Activity
9.15	Arrival & refreshments / networking
10.00	Welcome and AGM	IfJ committee
10.45	Refreshments and networking
11.05	Widgit Talk Improving Communication and Participation for People with Autism in Police Custody The talk covers the explanation and outcomes from the joint project between Hampshire Constabulary, Autism Hampshire and Widgit Software	Sue White; Education Sales Consultant, Widgit Software
11.30	Intermediary Case Presentations followed by Q&A <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Archie appears at a trial in a Youth Court A trial involving a witness, a young defendant and two intermediaries Working with a young person presenting with Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID): the complexities and challenges of facilitating evidence 	Jan Jones: Jan has practised as an RI since 2004 and assisted with a number of defendants Ann King: Ann has been practising as a RI since 2007. She has a background in health and young person's counselling.
12.00	MoJ update – short talk and questions Please be aware that Matthew's talk will be focused on the Witness Intermediary Scheme and the work of Registered Intermediaries Matthew is keen to take plenty of questions	Matthew Gould, Deputy Director of Criminal Courts and Criminal Law Policy (MoJ)
12.45	Lunch and networking
13.30	Intermediaries and our own Vulnerability: an interactive workshop session introducing the Kawa model tool to assist thinking & problem solving.	Rachel Ineson: intermediary; background in occupational therapy.
14.30	Setting the Vision for the Intermediary Profession	Louise Engers: intermediary; background in speech and language therapy. Nicola Lewis: intermediary
15.30	Refreshments and networking
15.50	Changing Tunes – talk and musical set. https://www.changingtunes.org.uk - charity using music and mentoring to help people lead lives free from crime. Working in prisons and with former offenders.	Changing Tunes Simon Torrance – musical director Musicians