COVID-19 Stakeholder Update / 01.05.20

This is the Ministry of Justice's regular stakeholder communications update service. This is intended to signpost the latest COVID-19 guidance and central government updates.

We encourage organisations to share these updates with your wider networks to ensure a wide circulation of important communications. For monitoring and evaluation purposes, we'd gratefully receive information on who you are sharing this with.

We would also find it helpful to know about your own communications plans and any intel that will help inform our communications moving forwards. Please do get in touch at stakeholder.intel@justice.gov.uk.

- We have robust and flexible plans to ensure we can continue to deliver key services across the justice system.
- A network of priority courts will remain open during the coronavirus pandemic to make sure the justice system continues to operate effectively.
- Selected lower-risk offenders, within weeks of their release dates, and pregnant women in custody who do not pose a high risk of harm to the public will be temporarily released from prison. Additionally, works have begun to deliver 500 temporary, single occupancy units at seven jails. This will increase space in prisons and limit the spread of Coronavirus helping protect staff, prisoners and the NHS.

HMPPS

Prisons and probation services have implemented significant changes to comply with the Government's social distancing rules and to protect staff and service users. The service has been working closely with public health experts, as well as criminal justice partners, to ensure that robust contingency plans are in place and immediate action can be taken wherever cases are identified. The following page will continue to be updated when new advice is available: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/coronavirus-covid-19-and-prisons>

As of 17:00 on THURSDAY 30 APRIL:

- 345 prisoners have tested positive for COVID-19 across 73 prisons;
- 371 prison staff have tested positive for COVID-19 across 64 prisons;
- 11 Prisoner Escort and Custody Services (PECS) staff have tested positive for COVID-19.

Further updates with the latest figures may be released later this evening to the media and will be included here the following day for information, so please do bear with us if they are superseded during the day.

HMCTS

HMCTS is maintaining a weekly operational update which will be published each Friday evening on GOV.UK, and an email will go to subscribers each Sunday evening with a reminder. On Monday mornings a link to the weekly update will be published on Twitter. HMCTS will only email again if there are any urgent or significant changes during the week. Subscribe here: <https://public.govdelivery.com/accounts/UKHMCTS/subscriber/new>

During this unprecedented public health emergency, we are adjusting practices and taking steps to minimise the risk to the judiciary, court staff and users. Any changes to individual hearings will be communicated directly to those affected in the usual way, by email and/or phone. The following page will continue to be updated when new advice is available: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/coronavirus-covid-19-courts-and-tribunals-planning-and-preparation>

Judiciary

NEW: The Jury Trial Working Group progresses plans to restart jury trials as soon as appropriate arrangements are in place to ensure it is safe. The group, including representatives from across the Criminal Justice System, has identified a small number of Crown Courts which may be suitable as potential venues in which to conduct the first jury trials, while adhering to social distancing and ensuring the health and safety of all court users.
