

Launch announcement imminent!!

IFJ film

Soon to be available on our website: www.intermediaries-for-justice.org

Last year Intermediaries for Justice received a small grant from the Legal Education Foundation to make two free videos about the intermediary role:

‘A Voice for the Voiceless’: training film (20mins)

‘A Voice for the Voiceless’: awareness-raising film (introductory version of the same material, 8 mins)

Registered Intermediaries Ann King and Catherine O'Neill (IfJ chair) and Dame Joyce Plotnikoff led this project. Voice-overs were provided by Baroness Helena Kennedy QC.

Those participating in the films include Judge Rosa Dean, solicitor Graeme Hydari, Kama Melly QC, police officers, Registered Intermediaries and family members whose relatives have experienced working with an intermediary.
